WHEREAS, fishermen from the Barangays of Sampaloc, Bitan-o and Cambulaga were affected by the construction of the coastal road depriving them of shoreline/seaside space for parking their bancas and fishing paraphernalia;

WHEREAS, trading posts located along the shoreline of the said barangays were likewise affected by the said project;

WHEREAS, providing them with necessary space and reliable docking yard/facility and concrete trading posts would bring convenience and economic advantage to the sector;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 8550, otherwise known as “The Philippine Fisheries Code of 1998”, Section to thereto explicitly mandates that the municipality/city government shall have jurisdiction over municipal waters and in consultation with the Fisheries and Aquatic Resources Management Councils (FARMC) shall be responsible for the management, conservation, development, protection, utilization and disposition of all fish and fishery/aquatic resources within their respective jurisdiction;

WHEREAS, demarcation buoys to delineate maritime territorial jurisdiction of the city and neighboring municipalities occupying the Sorsogon Bay is also of great necessity to avoid confusion and misunderstanding in the enforcement of their respective fishery code and other related local policies in the management, protection and conservation of marine resources;
